Civitan Club of Fairfax

Oh, there is business to be tended to. Fairfax Civitan will deal with that and plan next steps in a special 7 December Board meeting. But December is more about being thankful and about remembering who and what and why we love. We do care about our families, friends, and neighbors, and we seek special ways to show that. On Sunday afternoon on 9 December, Club members will join together at the ServiceSource Oakton facility, to potluck and party. Our gift giving within the Club will be by "Yankee Swap"—always fun. The party also will be the last chance for Club members to contribute to the growing "mountain" of new toys the Club is collecting for distribution via Toys for Tots.

FAIRFAX FERNS GARDEN CLUB

Monday night Nov 27, the Ferns decorated Old Town Hall. This week we will be busy making items to sell at the market on Saturday. Dec 11 the Ferns will celebrate the holidays with their traditional Soup & Salad dinner party. After New Years the Ferns will take down the decorations at Old Town Hall.

We Serve
Since 1951

We have started collecting for the Marine Corps Toys-for-Tots program at the lodge and are asking all members coming to the Lodge Christmas party on December 2 to bring a toy for admittance.

On December 9 we will have our annual ChrisMOOSE Party which is lunch with Santa, games, crafts and gifts from Santa for all children attending.

The lodge will be closed Christmas Eve and Christmas Day so our employees can enjoy the holiday with family.

We will be open New Years Eve (from 3PM-1AM) but there is no formal party. We will celebrate the New Year with noise makers, champagne and snacks at midnight.

Woman's Club of Fairfax

We had a very successful bake sale at the Fairfax Holiday Show the week-end of November 18. Proceeds go to our scholarship fund.

The Woman's Club's "Adopt-a-Spot" is the School Street Park. We involved a local Girl Scout troop as well as some firefighters to paint rocks and create a rock snake which was placed at the park.

Club members donated 160 canned goods to Britepaths and Fairfax United Methodist Church during a food drive.

Our club donated $100 to the Fairfax County Department of Family and Partners specifically to fill its need for baby wipes.

We have collected 14 pounds of aluminum tabs from cans to be recycled and sold for charity.

Members are also donating old tennis shoe for recycling.

We continue to donate items (such as disposable adult diapers, disposable shoe covers, disposable rain ponchos, simple tie bags) to the City of Fairfax Crisis Reaction Team.

Members will volunteer at the upcoming City Band concerts, handing out tickets and programs and showing people to their seats.

Two new members were sworn in at our last meeting.
